Emirates Training Centre

Cabin Crew Manual

Rights reserved, giorgiodabest2#0's Emirates Airlines
No direct recreation or copies of these documents are permitted

Contents

- Introduction
- Attire
- Regulations & Terms
- Practices
  - Communication
  - Offence System
- Script
  - Boarding
  - Pre-departure
  - Cruising
  - Arrival
- Conclusion & Credits

Introduction

As a cabin crew member, you represent the Emirates brand and are responsible for ensuring that passengers experience a professional, enjoyable, and realistic flight. Your role includes assisting passengers, maintaining safety, and delivering exceptional inflight service.

Cabin crew members must always maintain professionalism, strong communication, and teamwork. Every action you take reflects not only on yourself but on the entire Emirates team.

Remember that our goal is to provide a smooth, realistic, and welcoming environment for all passengers during every flight.

Attire

Emirates maintains a strict dress code to ensure all crew members appear coordinated, professional, and realistic while on duty. Crew members must arrive at flights wearing appropriate attire that represents Emirates in a professional manner.

- Crew members must wear:

  Male Attire
  - Emirates Cabin Crew Shirt
  - Emirates Cabin Crew Pants

  Female Attire
  - Emirates Cabin Crew Shirt
  - Emirates Cabin Crew Pants

  If official uniforms are unavailable, a black suit with black pants from the outfit picker may be used as an alternative.

  Note: All official uniform packs are currently unavailable.

Attire

- Accessories

  Accessories must remain minimal and professional.

  Allowed accessories include:
  - Glasses
  - Watches
  - Small cosmetic accessories

  Not allowed:
  - Sunglasses
  - Large or bulky avatar items
  - Trails or effects
  - Face-covering accessories
  - Troll or unrealistic avatar items
  -

- Avatar Requirements

  To maintain realism during flights:
  - Only R6 or R15 avatars are permitted
  - Avatars should appear realistic and professional
  - Immature or trolling avatars are prohibited

  Crew members are expected to use common sense when selecting their avatar and accessories.

Regulations & Terms

All Emirates cabin crew members must follow these guidelines while working.

- Professionalism
  Crew members must always behave professionally while on duty.
  The following behavior is not permitted:
  - Trolling or immature behavior
  - Disrupting operations
  - Arguing with passengers or staff
  - Ignoring instructions from senior staff

  Professional grammar and communication should always be used when interacting with passengers.

Regulations & Terms

All passengers and staff members must be treated with respect.

- Crew members must:
  - Remain calm during difficult situations
  - Avoid arguments or conflict
  - Be helpful and patient with passengers

If a disagreement occurs, the most senior staff member present has the final decision.

Practices: Comms

Communication between teams is extremely important during flights.

- Crew members should use the following format when communicating with other departments:
  {Position} to {Position}: Message
  Example:
  [CC] to [FD]: Cabin ready for departure.
  Position abbreviations include:
- Flight Deck
  - Direct Entry Captain – DC
  - First Officer – FO
  - Flight Deck – FD
- Cabin Crew
  - Cabin Crew – CC
  - Purser – CS
- Ground Operations – GC

Always communicate clearly with your team during flights.

Practices: Offences

Both passengers and staff are subject to an offense system to maintain order during flights.

- There are two types of offenses:

Minor Offenses

- Disruptive behavior
- Ignoring crew instructions
- Spamming chat

Major Offenses

- Severe trolling
- Harassment
- Intentionally disrupting operations

- Three minor offenses or one major offense may result in administrative action.
  If a situation occurs, notify the Flight Host or Executive Team immediately.

Script

- The following scripts are designed to help cabin crew communicate professionally with passengers throughout the flight experience. These scripts are recommended, but may be adapted depending on the situation or passenger response.
  Always remain polite, professional, and clear when speaking to passengers.

- Check-In
  Check-in is the first interaction passengers will have with Emirates staff, so professionalism and clarity are important.

- Greeting
  'Hello! Welcome to Emirates. How may I assist you today?'
- Confirm Destination
  'Are you traveling to [Destination] today?'

Script

- Request Travel Documents
  'May I please see your passport or travel documents?'
  -Passenger provides documents
  'Thank you.'

- Checked Baggage
  'Will you be checking any baggage today?'
  → If passenger has baggage:
  'Please place your baggage on the scale.'
  -tag baggage
  -send baggage to conveyor
  'Thank you'

- Boarding Pass
  'Would you like a printed boarding pass or a virtual boarding pass?'
  → If virtual
  'Your virtual boarding pass has been sent. Please present the QR code at the boarding gate.'

Script

- If printed
  -prints boarding pass
  'Here is your boarding pass.'

- Gate Information
  'Your flight EK ### will be departing from Gate ##. Boarding will begin shortly.
  Thank you for choosing to fly with Emirates. Enjoy your flight.'

- Boarding Gate Script
  'Hello! Please scan your boarding pass.'
  -Passenger scans
  'Thank you.'
- First Class
  'You are boarding First Class. Please proceed to rows 1-2.'
- Business Class
  'You are boarding Business Class. Please proceed to rows 3-6.'

Script

> Economy Class

'You are boarding Economy Class. Please proceed to your assigned seat behind row 6.
Have a wonderful flight with Emirates.'

> Onboard Greeting

→ Cabin crew should greet passengers at the aircraft door.

→ /e wave

'Welcome aboard Emirates.
Please follow the aisle to your seat. Let us know if you require any assistance.'

Script

- Pre-Departure Service
- Before pushback, cabin crew should provide welcome service to First and Business Class passengers.
  'Welcome aboard Emirates.
- Here is your amenities kit.
  Would you like a hot towel?'
  -Passenger responds
  -serve towel
- 'May I offer you something to drink before departure?'
  -Passenger responds
  -prepare drink
  'Here you are. Enjoy.'
  'If you need anything before departure, please let us know.'

- Safety Demonstration Announcement
- 'Ladies and gentlemen, for your comfort and safety, please direct your attention to the cabin crew for the safety demonstration.'

Script

- Cruising
- Once the aircraft has reached cruising altitude and permission has been given by the flight deck, cabin service may begin.
- Cruising Announcement
- ‘Ladies and gentlemen, we have now reached cruising altitude.
  You may move around the cabin when the seatbelt sign is off. However, we recommend keeping your
- seatbelt fastened while seated.
  Our cabin crew will now begin inflight service.’

Script

- Meal Service
- → ‘Hello! May I offer you something to eat today?’
  -Passenger orders
- → ‘Certainly.’
  -prepare meal
- → ‘Here you are. Enjoy your meal.
  If you need anything else during the flight, please press your call button.’

- Bar Service
- → ‘Ladies and gentlemen, the Emirates onboard bar is now open.’
  ‘Hello! What may I get for you today?’
  -prepare drink
  ‘Here you are. Enjoy.’

Script

- Arrival

→ After landing and during taxi to the gate.
'Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to [Arrival City].
We have landed safely. Please remain seated with your seatbelt fastened until the seatbelt sign has been turned off.
You can find baggage claim and connecting flight information on the airport displays.
Thank you for choosing to fly with Emirates.'

- At the Gate

→ Once the aircraft arrives at the gate.
-disarm doors
'Ladies and gentlemen, the aircraft has arrived at the gate and the seatbelt sign has been turned off.
Please take all personal belongings with you as you exit the aircraft.
Thank you for flying with Emirates and we hope to see you again soon.'

Conclusion & Credits

- This handbook was created to guide Emirates cabin crew members in delivering a professional and enjoyable inflight experience.

- By following the procedures outlined in this document, you help maintain the high standards expected from the Emirates brand.

- Thank you for your dedication and contribution to the Emirates PTFS Cabin Crew Team.

→ Last Updated: March 2026

→ Copyright © 2026 Emirates PTFS. All Rights Reserved.